spoken to you." Jeremiah 30:2

Dream Interpretation Basics

1. Record it as soon as possible
 - Date
 - Time
 - Possibly draw a diagram
2. How are you participating in the dream?
 - Observer
 - Participant
 - Observer/participant
 - Main focus
3. Find the focus – who or what is the dream about?
 - Write down the main facts
 - What object or thought occurs most often and what remains with you when the dream ends?
 - Observe the sequence of things
 - What questions linger about the dream?
 - Is the dream black and white or color? What is in color and the rest black/white?
4. Look at the context of the dream
 - Remove the filler – things that don't help clarify the focus
 - Keep the main thing the main thing
 - The tone of the dream: hope, fear, peace, etc.
 - What is God presently dealing with in your life?
5. Use contrast "why is this used instead of that?" (why a blue car instead of an orange bike)
6. Title your dream
